

Dent CE Primary Home Learning Newsletter

Issue: No2

Dear Parents, Carers and Children,

Welcome to our second issue!

It has been exciting to see so many photos of your home learning activities appearing on the Dent CE Primary Twitter account, from scrumptious pancakes and inventive egg projects to wonderful painted stones and marvellous maths challenges. We have also loved reading about some of your other adventures: building dens; helping out on the family farm; building model towns; cycling; taking lovely walks and generally having fun in this lovely sunshine. Do keep sending us your photos and messages!

We are particularly proud of the kindness and thoughtfulness shown by so many of our Dent children who took the time to write letters to the residents of some of the local care homes. Your letters were cheerful and friendly and will, I am sure, have brought a smile to the face of all who read them. It is lovely to think that our own special Dent family reached out to those residents who may have been missing their own families—well done and thank you!

The Dent staff have been noticing some other members of our Dent family who have been really enjoying home learning time - our pets! As I type this newsletter my dog Ross is curled up at my feet, no doubt wondering how long he has to wait until it is time for us to go on another walk (in a minute, Ross!). We all thought that you might like to see some photos of our pets, enjoying extra family time and looking very cute and furry, too. Our lovely pets are the stars of the photo gallery on the back of this newsletter – check it out! Why not send in a photo or drawing of your pets to me at mandy@dent.cumbria.sch.uk so that I can include them in our next newsletter?

For those of you who might fancy having a virtual fieldtrip out of Dent valley for a change, here are a few suggestions:

In the mood for exploring artefacts from Ancient Egypt and beyond? Spend some time at the British Museum:

Did you know that Chester Zoo has virtual zoo days? Why not catch up on past zoo days by following the link on their website:

Well, that's all for now. If you would like to send in a photo or something that you would like to share with us all through the next newsletter, email it to me at:

Best wishes and Happy Home Learning!

From Mandy (and Ross!)
