

Dear Parents, Carers and Children,

Welcome to our fifth issue!

This week we send out a huge Dent Primary welcome to Benedict and his sister Minty, who will be joining us very soon. We can't wait to meet you both!

We continue our pet theme this issue with some amazing pet poems. Bella has been super busy writing poems not just about her own lovely cat, Rory, but also writing an acrostic poem about Norbert for Mrs Edwards. Terrific job, Bella! Over the page you will also find some wonderful pet poems written by Alfie (remember Nico from our last issue?) and Evie (of her lovely dog Meg).

Have you been enjoying lots of lovely extra time outdoors? Why not have a go at the Wildlife Trust's 'Random Acts of Wildness' challenge? You can find them on Seesaw or by visiting

<https://www.wildlifetrusts.org/wildness>

Feeling creative? Sporty? Musical? Are you interested in nature or the environment? How about doing one of the Blue Peter Badge challenges? Check out the Seesaw link or visit

Well, that's it for issue 5! Please do keep sending in your photos, drawings and messages to mandy@dent.cumbria.sch.uk

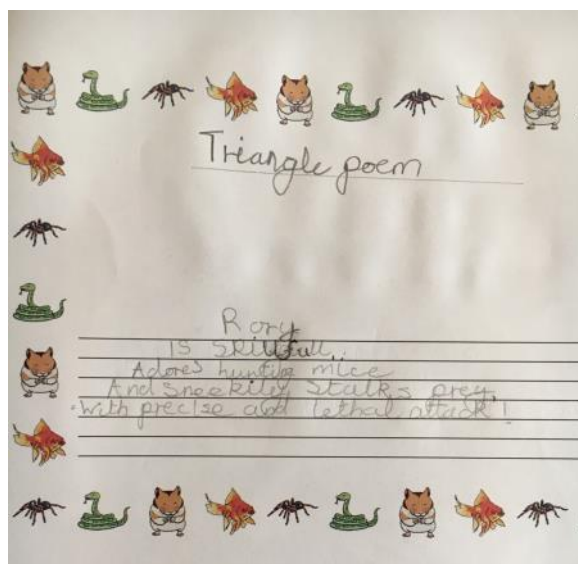

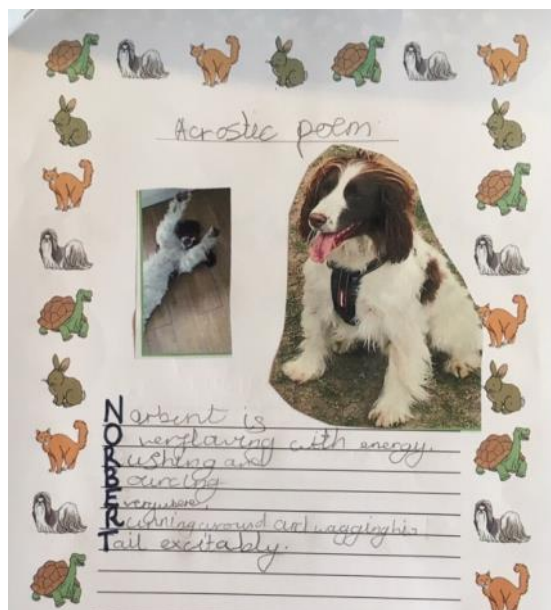

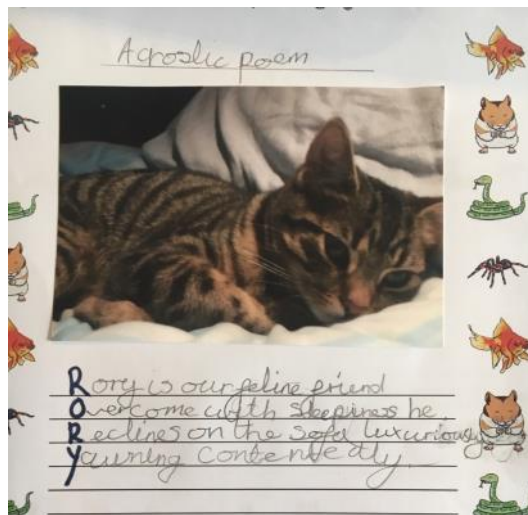

Ross and I will look out for you all on Dent School Facebook, Twitter and Seesaw. Till then:

Best Wishes and Happy Home Learning!

From Mandy (and Ross!)

Bella's Pet Poems

These are some words that describe Meg:

- gluggly
- noisy
- old
- lazy
- friendly
- calm
- gappy
- wooly
- affectionate
- part

Acrostic Poem:

Meg likes to wander around.
English Dog named Meg.
On most days Meg eats her food.

A Triangular Poem about Meg

Meg is quiet and very lazy
but is very friendly
She stretches through the window

Nico my dog

quickly, active, adventurous, fluffy, alert, friendly, curious, handsome, loyal, happy, playful, intelligent, friendly, energetic, billy, snuggly, sticky, happy, loud, alert, friendly, very busy!

Nico my playful, happy pup
Is my best friend as he Shakes and leaps about
Over walls and fences with me

Nico
the alert and bouncy dog pounds and leaps around what a happy, playful Nico
